

Our Blessed Redeemer

Joyfully give thanks to the Father, who strengthens us by His glorious might;
By His love we're qualified to share with the saints in eternal life.
For He's delivered us from the dark, and brought us into His perfect light;
Into the kingdom of God's own Son, our blessed Redeemer and Savior.

Press onward in unwavering hope, for in Christ we're blameless.
The perfect sacrifice of God's Son has made peace between us.
Though we once were estranged from God, now we're reconciled by His blood.
Heaven and earth belong to the Son, our blessed Redeemer and Savior.

No longer submit to this world, for its' ways soon will perish,
God has made us alive in Him; through Christ we're forever pardoned.
He's canceled our bond, nailed it to the cross, publicly triumphing over death.
Cling to the Almighty Son of God, our blessed Redeemer and Savior.

Set your heart on things above, since you've been raised with Jesus.
For we've died to the ways of the earth; our lives are hidden with Christ in God.
And when Christ, our life appears, we shall behold Him in glory,
Forever exalting the perfect Son, our blessed Redeemer and Savior.